Background

Bedroom Beats marks the first release for several artists on the mix, each approached as Brasky staff gathered word-of-mouth endorsements or privileged previews of music created by individuals more interested in craft than exposure. It's in this spirit that we included a variety of styles, ranging from LA-flavored, sample-driven glitch hop to ambient, lo-fi bass music. In this mixture we see the emergence of a sound unique to Florida, characterized by fuzzy beachside vibes spliced with aggressive, urban beats. Leading the way are regional upstarts Sumsun, Panther God, and Chromatic Flights (1/2 of Blind Man's Colour), followed closely by upstarts Luminary Youth, Navigateur, and others producers generating news around the state.

To adhere to the "bedroom beats" theme, we looked for the following qualities:

1. Styles/moods usually associated with "bedroom music" – introspective, emotive, and suitable for listening to alone (though plenty of these would do well in the dance hall...)
2. Beat-driven music that showcases both production technique and creative/artistic merit.
3. Artists who appear to create music for the sake of creating sonic artwork, even when there's no spotlight to be had.

Getting the rights to offer up these tracks for free is an important part of what the Florida Indoors series is about. In that spirit we ask you to help spread the word to help these artists get some deserved exposure in new markets.
